

Everyday Matters: a growth path to merino success

14-15 June 2017
Freshwater Creek VIC

Dr Jason Trompf
& Belinda Steers

Targets and tactics- setting and managing the Merino growth path

8.30am - 4pm Wednesday 14th June

Setting your lifetime growth path & establishing management guidelines

- Conception to lambing
- Lambing to weaning
- Weaning to joining
- Maiden to matron

Lunch

Finding genes for the job

- Matching genes to your breeding objective
- To keep or cull- the options & opportunities
- The key data needed to inform decisions

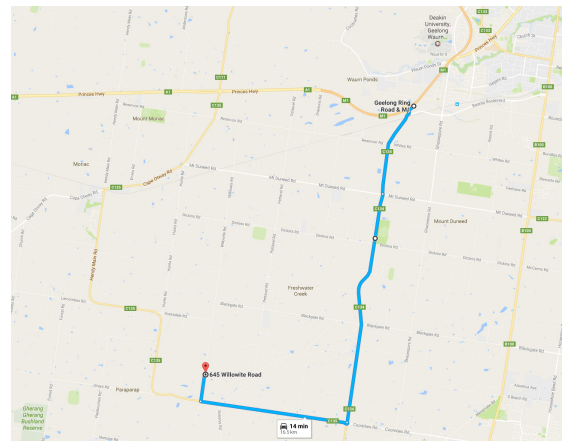

8.30am - 12pm Thursday 15th

To capture and capitalize- data that will increase total productivity

- Deciding which data will add value to your business
- Effectively using EID as part of the process
- Displays of data collection- weight, fleece samples and fleece weighing

Venue: 'Roseheight' 645 Willowite Road, Freshwater Creek 3217 (approx 15 mins from Warrn Ponds Drive)

Cost: $50 per person

RSVP: 9 June 2017

Pat Brown: 0427 546 151

brownx4@bigpond.com or John Sutherland 0428 953 017

Merino

founded 1913

Thinking and breeding for the future